Positive Behaviour for Success

Our Kindness Project has been strongly embraced by our school community with dozens of nominations for random acts of kindness. At our school assembly on Thursday, March 3, the following students were presented with awards for being nominated ‘Kindness Ambassadors’:

As part of our Kindness Project we held a mufti-day, with the theme of coming as your ‘Kindness character’, to raise funds for the School of St Jude in Tanzania. This school relies on donations and sponsorship to continue offering an education to thousands of Tanzania’s poorest families. Please see the PBS report for full details about this worthwhile charity.

I encourage every member of our school community to perform an act of kindness every day.

‘Be kind, for everyone you meet is fighting a hard battle’. Ian McLaren

Active Learners

We are currently focusing on quality learning by encouraging our students to be an ACTIVE LEARNERS.

Students can be an active learner by listening to instructions, always completing tasks to the best of their ability, asking questions and remaining on task throughout the lesson. I would like to acknowledge Jarrod Ragg on being nominated by one of his class teachers for demonstrating the qualities of an active learner. The following poem was written by Jarrod in response to our ‘kick off with reading’ book, Wonder by RJ Palacio.

Kristal Beers, from our support unit, was also nominated for her excellent poster supporting our Kindness Project. Congratulations to Jarrod and Kristal!

Poem by

Jarod Ragg (Year 8):

I am August Pullman.
I wonder if the kids in class will notice me.
I hear people talking about me.
I see kids staring at me.
I want to have a normal face.
I am August.

I pretend to be a Padawan.
I feel normal.
I touch my face.
I worry about school.
I cry sometimes.
I am Auggie Doggie.

I understand my life.
I say it’s okay.
I dream of being normal.
I try to be kind.
I hope to do great things.
I am a wonder.
Year 7 2017 Information Evening
Tuesday March 8 2016
6.00pm-7.00pm in School Library
(please enter via Administration)

Session includes a musical item by current Year 7 CAPA students and relevant information for prospective Year 7 2017 students and their parents / caregivers.

Light refreshments will be provided.
Moss Vale High School is a truly amazing and vibrant learning place. It is a genuine pleasure to walk around the school and to hear happy and positive noise. A true indicator of a centre of active learning!

Opportunities
I always promote the opportunities and experiences that this great school offers. This week alone we have had Kindness Project, Davidson Shield Cricket, Zone Rugby League Trials, Year 7 Cyber Safety, Marvellous Assembly highlighting Dance, Music and organisation by the Entertainment class, Volunteering to support “Mature aged” IT learning in Bowral, Mufti Day to demonstrate that our school genuinely values and cares for those who are less fortunate, and many others.

One opportunity to highlight is this weekend is the conclusion of the Cattle Showing program. This began in September last year with the arrival of the animals from Airlie Stud on Sheepwash Road. The students in Years 9 and 10 Agriculture and Year 12 Primary Industries have worked with these animals since that date feeding, gentling, presenting the animals. This has involved a feed and work roster on top of normal class times (including weekend !) At Robertson they performed to a very high level and were wonderful ambassadors for the school. We wish Ms McNeill and her team all the best at Moss Vale Show on Saturday.

Just a couple of key things.

Entry to School
ALL Parents need to be aware that it is a legal requirement that visitors must register to enter the school and this can only be achieved at the front office. This includes parents of students in the support unit who enter through the middle door in A Block. This is an emergency / taxi access only. Parents must enter via the Administration office. Also, parents cannot legally access students from the streets.

Uniform Shop
Great news the new winter jackets have arrived (on the hottest day on the year!!!). They are practical, look good and complement our uniform range. This gives our students the wind, rain and cold protection that has been missing. There will be no need for non-school spray jackets from this point on.

Medical Information
In my role has DP, there has been a number of cases where the medical information on students is out of date or simply missing. Can I appeal to all parents, guardians to notify the school of the medical condition of their child. It is confidential and is there to maintain their safety and make sure that they are treated appropriately. Please support the school and contact the front office to make sure information is accurate.

Looking forward to Week 7
Good luck to Year 12 in their Mid Course Exams ! Only 24 weeks to your HSC!
Welcome to families of prospective Year 7 students for 2017 at the Information Evening on Tuesday.

*Mr O’Brien
Acting Deputy Principal*
Kindness is the quality of being friendly, generous and considerate. Without kindness, the world would be an unhappy place full of conflict and criticism.

On Thursday 18th February, Moss Vale High School kicked off with the first PBS lesson for 2016. This lesson was focused on kindness and the 2016 Kick Off with Reading book, Wonder, by R.J. Palacio. From 9.00 to 9.30, Moss Vale High had a whole school lesson where we discussed the importance of kindness and also talked about Auggie’s craniofacial condition. We were posed the question: if we had a chance to meet someone like him, what questions would we like to ask him/her.

After the assembly, we returned to our roll call groups and discussed what our thoughts were about the assembly and then considered what questions we would ask to someone with a condition like Auggie’s.

- Jacinta Burns & Daisy Schaefer, SRC.

“Each of us has his or her own alphabet with which to create poetry”

- Irving Stone

Yet again, a highlight of our lesson was a film by our very own Luke Vandenbergh. The film featured students and staff discussing what kindness means to them, along with quotes from Wonder.

We’re all looking forward to seeing where the MVHS Kindness Project takes us this year!
A VISIT FROM THE SCHOOL OF ST JUDE

On Thursday 31st March, MVHS will host two very special visitors: Gemma Sisia and Dorice Livingstone Abel from the School of St Jude in Tanzania.

The school was opened in 2002, with three students and some passionate volunteers. By the following year, the school had grown to 120 students, employing 23 local staff.

14 years later, The School of St Jude educated over 2,000 bright students from the poorest homes in the local area. With three campuses and boarding houses for all students over Year 3, the school’s achievements are enormous.

In 2015, the first cohort of St Jude’s students graduated from Year 12—a landmark event! Dorice Livingstone Abel is one of those graduates, and joins school founder Gemma Sisia in a speaking tour of Australia in March and April.

Space will be limited, but family members are welcome to join us for this very special assembly, on Thursday 31st March from 2.30 pm. Please contact the school prior to the day if you wish to come along.

In addition to our assembly, a fundraising dinner is running at Centennial Vineyards on the evening of the 31st March. Again, contact the school if you are interested in attending, or see the ad below.

MORE NEWS FROM THE PBS TEAM
School captains, Lucy Backhouse and Harriet Snaith addressed the students at the start of their first PBS lesson for 2016.

Lucy -
When given the choice between being right or being kind, choose kind. Kindness is the quality of being friendly, generous and considerate. At Moss Vale High School, we are integrating kindness into our day to day lives so we can become individuals who are considerate, generous and friendly in both the school and wider community. Initially, the idea of being kind over being right came from our new book Wonder which inspired numerous schools in America, who are successfully incorporating this message into their school environment. We have changed it however, to suit our school, focusing on Moss Vale High School's kindness project. Being kind is an important aspect in all our lives as it is important that we treat others the way we wish to be treated. In addition, being kind to some one starts a chain reaction, as it inspires the person you were kind to, to carry the positivity on to another person, therefore creating a positive atmosphere.

Harriet -
The ways we are enforcing kindness into our day to day school lives is through our new book Wonder and making kindness our PBS focus for the year as R J Palacio writes in Wonder: ‘Courage. Kindness. Friendship. Character.’ These are the qualities that define us as human beings and propel us on occasion to greatness. What can you do to incorporate kindness into each school day? It could be as simple as including another student if you see them sitting alone, because one act of kindness has a huge ripple effect.

There will be a Close the Gap BBQ on Thursday 17 March to raise awareness of the inequality between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in terms of health care, education and overall quality of life.

All proceeds go to Oxfam Australia in their fight against poverty. Hope everyone can get behind it.

Home and Away was three days of fun, and three days of mishaps.

Things started off well, the weather was beautiful and we made our way to the middle of the bush near Wedderburn. The students had a great day battling against each other in the various teams. Determination and strategy were the key words used for the day as you saw teams huddle as they strategized for their next competition. In the end Louis’ team “The Chicken Nuggets” versus Jacob’s team “Get Rekt Kids” faced off for the championship. Things were tense as everybody hunkered down to try and take the advantage on the field. In the end Mitchell, Jacob’s sniping lynchpin, was taken down, at which point a massive incursion happened on the field and Jacob’s team was taken out, making Chicken Nuggets victorious for the day.

On our way home our bus’ air conditioning failed. So there we were sweltering in an enclosed bus in 40 degree heat. We made our way to the nearest service station for slushies and a new bus. While we missed the first couple of busses, everybody made it home, ready for the next adventure.

Macarthur Square was a quiet day. We watched Hotel Transylvania 2 and then got our Christmas shopping done. All in all, it was an uneventful day until we met up to get back onto the bus again. Air conditioning failed again. This time it was caught early so the trip back to school was uneventful.

Well ours had been an activity week of small misadventures so why wouldn’t Jamberoo be any different. We rocked up to the park just as it opened, but we couldn’t help but notice that small drizzle of rain that was hitting the windshield and the fact that the lights were out when we went through Albion Park.

At about 11am the storm hit. Lightning, thunder and the biggest deluge of rain the area had seen for a while. The Funnel Web was shut down but most other activities were still running, but that wasn’t the problem. The wind was the problem and it was freezing! Purple lips, goose pimpled flesh and a lot of people who were just plain wet.

But while others ran, we stuck it out. After all we were here to five and this storm couldn’t last forever. After we finished our lunch, the storm had abated, but it was still cold. Undeterred the students took off for the rides again. After 2pm, a miracle happened. The sun came out and even more impressive by 4pm it was actually warm again. In the end, the students had their fill of both rides and sugar. But alas it was time to go home, this time in an uneventful bus ride to end our awesome activity week.

Ms Naujok
Activity Leader
Survivor

Survivor is an activity that is named due to the high adrenalin sports that it involves. Each year, we deliver to students exciting and breathtaking activities with the individual needing a certain amount of courage to participate. In 2015, the chosen adventures didn’t disappoint.

On the first day, 19 students travelled to Penrith White-water stadium, the home of kayaking and canoeing from the Sydney Olympic Games. In a raft of 6, students were hurled down the man-made course with the water flowing at 14 cubic litres of water per second. Once completing the course, the rafts with the individuals still in them, ride the conveyor belt to the top of the course to do it all again. Some were flung out of their rafts and had a particularly interesting ride to the bottom. Students came away from this experience with a smile on their face. Some thought it was their best day of activity week.

Others, however, thought Indoor skydiving at IFLY Penrith was even better. We did this activity in 2014. It was such a winner; we decided to do it again in 2015. Students are taken inside a giant glass tunnel where a massive wind generator lifts them effortlessly into flight on a cushion of air. The highlight is the instructor spinning you all the way to the top of the tunnel and down again in quick time. All students were provided with photos and video of the day. Students can find these at school on S (student) drive, IFY 2015 folder.

On the last day, we went to an old favourite - that is, Jamberoo Recreation Park. Jamberoo has a number of rides these days with the degree of screaming for some being especially loud. Unfortunately, we were caught in the middle of a thunderstorm which lowered temperatures to shivering. After the storm had dispersed, students resumed their fun-time with all getting out and about the water park.

Overall, I am pleased to say all students that attended showed exemplary behaviour. Mrs Rossi and I had an easy time during the three days due to the cooperative and positive nature of these students. To these students, I hope you had a great time and are ready for another memorable Activity Week in 2016.

Mr Nash
Activity Leader
I have to admit I approached the PS Adventure with Mr Gannon with more than a little trepidation. After all, he is known around the school as Captain Risky! However, I was comforted by three things: firstly, as the bus driver I knew we would be punctual, safe and no funny detours; secondly, we would have the super organised and efficient Ms Curtis on board; and last, but by no means least, there was a wonderful bunch of students, including many of my Year 10’s coming along.

These things made me feel positive and excited. And any doubts I harboured about Mr Gannon evaporated during the first day where I realised he had put a great deal of thought and planning into devising a highly active and enjoyable itinerary. He knew exactly where our pit stops would be on the 4 hour journey and of what duration. Before long we were at the Shark and Ray Centre literally in the same pool feeding them! What an adrenalin rush!

The accommodation was cabin-style in a wooded area (with possums) right next to the world famous giant sand dunes. We explored them, swam in the pool, BBQ-ed and then played table tennis in the games room. We played this very funny game called ‘Donkey’.

The next day we enjoyed a mid-morning dolphin cruise and snorkelling around an offshore island. This was amazing and some of the girls stumbled upon a sea turtle. Lunch was taken at pretty Nelson Bay before a trip to the lookout and then back to the accommodation and the pool and BBQ and more ‘Donkey’ (Mr Gannon loved it).

The final day was more of the same – fun! We did kayaking and paddle-boarding and then sand duneing. All this did take it out of us and most opted to chill out around the pool for a few hours until our dinner night out at the Bowling Club (schnitzel night). Except yours truly who decided to walk across the dunes to the beach which went great until I headed back and got lost (it all looked different in reverse). Embarrassingly, I had to ring Mr Gannon to send out a search party. But, it was all good, I got back in time to drive us out for a beaut dinner. A fabulous experience.

Thank you to Mr Gannon, Ms Curtis and especially the wonderful students who were such a great bunch of people to hang out with.

Activity Week Canberra

By Sophie Tottenham

On December 14 to 16 2015, for Activity Week I went to Canberra. On the 14th we went to Lake Burley Griffin for lunch and then we went to Questacon. At Questacon, we got to explore all the cool science things that they have.

Later in the afternoon we went to the Australian War Memorial. There we learnt about what the soldiers did when they went to war. After, we drove to the Youth Hostel Australia in Canberra City where we were staying. We checked in and got settled into our rooms.

We went for a walk around Canberra City and got some food for dinner and dessert and we saw three camels! We went back to the hostel and the teachers made us spaghetti bolognaise for dinner and we had yoghurt and peaches for dessert.

On the 15th we had breakfast in the Youth Hostel kitchen and got ready for the day ahead. We went to the Royal Australian Mint and saw how all the coins were made. Next, we got to go Christmas shopping at the Mall and had a sausage sizzle for lunch at Cockington Green and a tour of the miniature villages.

Later, we went to Parliament House and took some photos of the lovely view! For dinner we went to a restaurant called Chicken Gourmet Pizza and I had two chicken wings with some chips. That evening, we went to the Telstra Tower! We went to the very top! It was fun and I got some great photos!

On the 16th we went to the National Zoo & Aquarium and saw lots of animals and a tiger that was 20 years old! I got KFC for lunch and then we drove back to Moss Vale High School.

I had a really great time! Thank you to Mrs Ridewood, Mrs Horne, Mr Vandervoort and Mr Williams! I would definitely recommend it to anyone who wants to come this year!
Imagine a crystal clear, burbling river, banked by open grassed campsites surrounded by ample shade with views of the Snowy mountain range. There is melodic birdsong, a mob of kangaroos across the dirt access road, on the long deserted airstrip and friendly wood ducks. This is Geehi camp ground the idyllic location of the Moss Vale High Trout Fishing Activity. This year twelve students, four teachers and five dads set up camp and had the privilege of spending three days at this glorious location. We enjoyed fishing, walking, talking, eating and swimming, as well as a trip to Geehi Pondage and Murray 1 power station (to learn a little of the Hydroelectricity scheme). The weather was hot and the nights were cool and we were treated to an electrical storm at dusk on the third night. Hopefully, students made some new friends, learnt a little of fishing and discovered some of the joys of camping.

Many thanks go out to the dads that come along and enrich this activity with their knowledge of wildlife and fishing.
